Grove Farm Bed & Breakfast

Otherwise known as the Witches Hostel !!!

It has come to the attention of the Ewyas Lacy Study Group, that all may not be as it appears on the Grove Farm, Michaelchurch Escley. They purport to run a respectable bed and breakfast business but we have found evidence that questions the respectability of the operation.

They have on their land no less than a

Witches Hostel !

It has been known for some time that a cottage lay on the hillside above the Grove. It is shown on the 1844 Tithe Map at field number 625. At that time Sarah Piper was shown to be the landlord and Thomas Williams the occupier. The land holding was 24 acres running up to the Cefn Road. Some say the property name was Linnets.

This we think was a deflecting ploy. We now know better.

In the Survey of the Estate of the Right Honble the Earl of Abergavenny carried out about 1800, some 17 acres of land immediately to the north, part of the Wilderness by 1844, and called Tir Wm Thomas Powell, was held from the Earl of Abergavenny by John Lewis Esq. A map in the Survey shows this land and with it, reveals the true name of the immediately adjoining property to the south.

It records the name as Letty's Ach and is shown as occupied by Mr Walter Jenkins.

However, we have taken advice and believe the correct Welsh spelling is Llety'r Wrach translated meaning

Witches Hostel or Inn

Research continues into the depths of this property. Perhaps the Earl of Abergavenny held it as Lord of the Manor – or perhaps it was held by the Devil!

We do not intend to publicise this information without prior occupier approval unless provoked at any time and reserve our and the author's rights in this regard for all times.
